As Competition has Assumed a Formidable aspet in every branch of trade in the city of New York, it may not be inappropriate to direct, in an especial manner, the attention of Western and Southern merchants, and those visiting the city from other parts of the Union, to the excellent and admirably conducted establishment of Mr. WM. McGRORTY, 142 Broadway, where may now be found the most extensive stock of foreign and domestic carpetings, oilcloths, &c., ever presented for examination and sale in this city. There are no new styles, shades, colors, and patterns, of modern invention, that his judiciously selected assortment does not embrace; and in order to give a new impetus to his retail trade, he has made sacrifices of no ordinary character, in removing from his former extensive store, 133 William street, where his wholesale trade came up fully to his highest expectations. In his present location he is enabled to afford every facility and advantage to wholesale buyers, as well as to retail purchasers, for we are informed, on relable anthority, that he will not suffer himself to be undersold in this city by any establishment in his business. There is a peculiar attribute that has a marked reference to Mr. McGrorty: that those who have once made purchasers at his store, have hitherto invariably extended to him their patronage.

By Letters Patent secucid in 1849. Pulvermacher's Patent Hydro-Electric Vataic Chains, constructed to be worn under the garments, arishe most wonderful discovery in medicine and electricity of the present day. They relieve, without pain or shock, institute ache, rheumatic pains, tie dolereux, &c., and by its hild but continuous and preceptible action on the body, diseases of years' standing—such as gout, local paralysis, nervous complaints, liver diseases, &c.—disappear a if by a miracle. They precipitate metals from their solutions, decompose water, defiect the magnetic needle, in short, show all the phenomenon of a powerful voltaic pile. The instruments producing these effects weigh about two conces, can be folded up in apocket-book, are always ready for instantaneous use, and will last a man his lifetime, warding himself, family and friends, &c., against that number of diseases and complaints in which mild streaming electricity is a perfectly safe, certain, and wonderful speedy remedy. The price of a complete chain is from $1 to $5; batteries, $10 to $22 50.

Incredible as may seem the above facts, any person can easily convince himself beforehand, at the depot, of their truth. The importance of the invention has been acknowledged in America by the Academy of Medicine of New York, and the chains have been applied with great success in the medical colleges, the City, Bellevue, and Ward's Island Hospitals, Brooklyn City Hospital, &c.; in Europe, by the Royal Colleges of Physicians and Surgeons in London; by the Academie Nationale de Medecin at Paris; by the Imperial faculty at Vienna; by the Royal faculty at Vienna; by the Royal faculty at Vienna; by the Royal faculty at Perina by the Royal faculty at Perina by the Royal faculty at Perina hospitals in passession of testimonials to the same effect, from all the above institutions in America.
